

RON BLUE INSTITUTE

9:23 FELLOWSHIP

Overview

Focus

The 9:23 Fellowship exists to develop people through personal discipleship and study so that they might live in surrender and followership in their financial and spiritual lives. Each unit of the 9:23 Fellowship program is designed to explain, develop, and sharpen that focus in the lives of the participants.

Topics

The topics for each unit address this primary focus and guide the various learning activities. Here is a brief overview of the four units of the 9:23 Fellowship training:

Unit 1: Biblical Theology of Money and Possessions

A firm foundation in what the Bible says about money, possessions, generosity, and surrender is a crucial element to develop as a disciple who is fully informed and equipped to follow Jesus. This unit will take a deep look at the major themes presented in the Bible around money and possessions and their implications for our life in Christ.

Unit 2: Exploring Generosity and Whole Life Surrender

Moving from a knowledge of God's Word to living out those truths begins by exploring generosity and the call of Jesus to whole life surrender. This unit will challenge participants to deeply examine their current practices and path to a generous and surrendered life in Christ.

Unit 3: Modeling Biblical Personal Finance

This unit moves from the theoretical to the practical. Now that participants know what the Bible says and how they will obey and live out those directions, they can begin to develop a plan for aligning their financial and spiritual life with their beliefs.

Unit 4: Forming a Personal and Cultural Engagement Plan

The capstone project of the program is for each participant to develop a specific ministry action plan for putting into practice all they have experienced. Many participants implement their plans through their work, ministry, church, or local community.

Readings

Participants will read 2-3 books during each unit. The books are designed to challenge and convict. Participants are expected to come to each interaction activity prepared to spend some time discussing with one another what they gained from the required reading. Because of the nature of the reading, it is expected that there will be differing reactions and feelings about the books. This is by design. Don't expect to agree with everything that you read but do expect to be challenged by it.

Required Reading List

- Money, Possessions, and Eternity by Randy Alcorn
- CT Studd: Cricketer & Pioneer by Norman Grubb
- Joy Giving by Cameron Doolittle
- Free to Follow by Michael Blue
- The Choice by Hoag, Rodin, and Willmer
- With by Skye Jethani
- Celebration of Discipline: The Path to Spiritual Growth by Richard Foster

Suggested Reading/Watch List

- Neither Poverty nor Riches by Craig Blomberg
- Gospel Patrons by John Rinehart
- Master Your Money by Ron Blue and Michael Blue

Video Teaching

During four of the months, we will view David Platt's series, Secret Church: The Gospel, Possessions, and Prosperity. These videos will help to build a biblical theology that will run throughout the 9:23 Fellowship experience.

Other videos are designed to supplement the readings and to bring different points of view. Participants should watch the videos and come prepared to discuss what they have heard.

Activities

Each unit will include at least one activity or assignment. These activities are intended to force participants to go deeper individually with the content. These exercises are one of the primary tools that will help participants engage with the content and come away with tangible changes for their lives.

Interaction

Individual cohorts will meet every month for mutual engagement and growth, either online or in person. The conclusion of the 9:23 Fellowship is a live event, held in May, and is a Commissioning and a time of sharing and encouragement.

Plan for Engagement

The 9:23 Fellowship program is not merely a reading program; it is an equipping program intended to ignite active responses and involvement in God's work. The culmination is the guided development of a plan for engagement to put into practice what participants have learned and experienced. With the help of other participants, each person will develop a personal plan to engage their culture for Christ.
